

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY

WHEN: Wednesday, November 23

WHERE: Intersection of Court and James Streets

TIME: 5:30pm-7:30pm

FIREWORKS: 7:05pm

WHAT: Help Santa and Mrs. Claus light Rome's Christmas tree on Wednesday, November 23 at the Veteran's/Gansevoort parks on Court & James Street. Thanks to Joe Fazio Auto Sales, the Bobby Page Foundation, and Rome Historical Society sponsorships, the evening's activities start at 5:30pm-7:30pm with the Trinkaus Village display, free bike give aways by Ron Crever and Bikes for Kids, food, fireworks, and live music/entertainment by Bill Dipaolo and Entertainment Services, Scott Rutledge & the Greater CNY Christmas Choir, the Knights of the Mohawk Barbershop Choir and Anne Gannon & the Strough and Alumni Band. Come visit, make some wishes, and take a picture with Santa inside the Rome Historical Society. Only severely inclement weather will postpone the event, which has no rain date.
